

MEDIA RELEASE

CT Department of Labor Communications Office
Sharon M. Palmer, Commissioner

Labor Department Participating in Oct. 26 Veteran's Resource Fair at Three Rivers Community College

WETHERSFIELD, October 21, 2015 – Employees from the Connecticut Department of Labor's Office for Veterans' Workforce Development (OVWD) will showcase the agency's many employment services, assist former military personnel and their families, and provide outreach referrals during a 2nd Congressional District Veteran's Resource Fair taking place October 26.

The free event, being held at Three Rivers Community College, 574 New London Turnpike in Norwich, will run from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the college's Multi-Purpose Room. The Labor Department is one of 35 agencies and organizations participating.

Also featured will be agencies and organizations offering information about veteran and community health care programs, disabled veterans' outreach services, networking opportunities, readjustment counseling, educational opportunities and supportive services for veterans and their families.

"Labor Department staff will be on hand throughout the event to help attendees with job searches, answer employment-related questions, conduct résumé critiques and provide related workforce service," explains Terry Brennan, director of the agency's OVWD unit.

Those seeking more information about the resource fair can call 860-215-9264 or contact Sharon Lincoln at slincoln@threerivers.edu.

Veterans or their families unable to attend the event but interested in Labor Department services can visit the OVWD website at www.ctvetjobs.com.

###

Media Contact: Nancy Steffens, Communications Director
200 Folly Brook Boulevard, Wethersfield, CT 06109-1114
Phone: (860) 263-6535 – Fax: (860) 263-6536 – www.ct.gov/dol
An Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer

