27th Annual Manchester Community College Regional Job Fair is March 20

WETHERSFIELD, March 13, 2015 – Whether you’re a newcomer to the job market or looking to advance your career, plan on attending the 27th Annual Manchester Community Regional Job Fair taking place on Friday, March 20. The event, which runs from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., is sponsored by the Connecticut Department of Labor, Manchester Community College, the MCC Foundation, The Journal Inquirer and CBS Radio.

“The Connecticut Department of Labor is joining with Manchester Community College and our other partners to help employers connect with qualified jobseekers,” explains State Labor Commissioner Sharon M. Palmer. “Participants will have the chance to meet one-on-one with representatives from 40 companies offering positions in management, medical, technical, manufacturing and sales fields.”

Certified Professional Résumé Writers from the Connecticut Department of Labor will be available to critique résumés to help showcase jobseeker’s skills and accomplishments. Manchester Community College located at Great Path offers plentiful on-campus parking. Among the companies exhibiting will be Cox Communications, The Hartford, Six Flags New England, UPS, and Verizon.

Employers interested in participating in the MCC Regional Career fair can register online on the Labor Department’s website at www.ctjobfairs.com, or contact Julie Greene at Manchester Community College at JGreene@manchestercc.edu, or (860) 512-3374.
