Heroes 4 Hire Career Fair for Veterans Is April 14 In East Hartford's Rentschler Field Ballroom

WETHERSFIELD, April 10, 2015 – Employers with job openings in the managerial, professional, sales, administrative, production and related fields will be on hand Tuesday, April 14 to meet with veterans who served in the Army, Air Force, Coast Guard, Marines and Navy during the 11th Annual Heroes 4 Hire Fair taking place in East Hartford's Rentschler Field Ballroom.

The event, taking place from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., is sponsored by the Connecticut Department of Labor, the Connecticut Department of Veterans' Affairs, Travelers and CBS Radio.

According to Terry Brennan, director of the Connecticut Department of Labor's Office for Veterans' Workforce Development, more than 90 exhibitors will be in attendance, including Charter Communications, Frontier Communications, General Dynamics, Electric Boat, Infoshred LLC., Suburban Propane, UPS, Walgreens and Yarde Metals Inc.

Certified Professional Résumé Writers from the Connecticut Department of Labor will also be at the fair to work one-on-one with those who would like their résumés reviewed at no cost.

Previous Heroes 4 Hire Career Fairs have attracted more than 1,200 qualified job candidates, as well as individuals seeking information on related services, such as education benefits, health services and apprenticeships. Veterans, and their spouses and families, are all welcome to this free event.

Directions to Rentschler Field, as well as a complete listing of participating employers, can be found at www.ctjobfairs.com.
