

Middlesex County Career Fair Scheduled For June 23 at Cromwell's Crowne Plaza Hotel

WETHERSFIELD, June 4, 2015 – The Connecticut Department of Labor, in partnership with the Middlesex Chamber of Commerce and Workforce Alliance, will sponsor the Middlesex County Career Fair June 23 at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Cromwell.

Representatives from more than 40 companies are expected to take part and will be available to speak one-on-one about possible openings with their companies – from entry-level jobs to management positions.

“The Middlesex County Career Fair provides potential employers with excellent opportunities to connect with job-ready individuals,” explains State Labor Commissioner Sharon M. Palmer. “Companies will find an excellent forum in which to recruit employees for the skilled workforce they need, and jobseekers will have a great place to network with a variety of employers.”

Certified Professional Résumé Writers from the Connecticut Department of Labor will be present throughout the day to critique résumés in an effort to help jobseekers better showcase their skills and accomplishments. Labor Department employees will also conduct LinkedIn profile critiques, including recommendations for sharpening narrative, formatting changes to improve content, selecting photos, and ways to create effective headlines for LinkedIn pages.

Registration fee for employers is $300 with an additional $25 fee if an electrical outlet is needed. Fee includes a boxed lunch for each exhibitor, skirted table and company sign, program guide listing, and extensive radio, newspaper and Internet advertising. Employers can find details and online employer registration forms at www.middlesexchamber.com.

There is no cost for jobseekers to attend and parking is free. Please visit the Connecticut Department of Labor's job and career website at www.ctjobfair.com for directions to the Crowne Plaza Hotel, which is located at 100 Berlin Road/Route 372, and for a list of participating companies.
