Risk Mitigation & Awareness Is Topic at September CONN-OSHA Employer Breakfast Roundtable

WETHERSFIELD, August 30, 2016 – Situational awareness and risk mitigation in the workplace is the topic of the September 20 Breakfast Roundtable Discussion Group sponsored by the Connecticut Department of Labor’s Division of Occupational Safety and Health (CONN-OSHA).

Alden B. Davis of the consulting firm MyValueTree who is known for his expertise in “regenerating institutions,” will be the guest speaker at the 8:15 to 9:45 a.m. meeting. Geared for employers and their employees, the roundtable will be held at the agency’s Central Office, 200 Folly Brook Boulevard, Wethersfield.

“Alden is known to many as a ‘corporate plumber’ for his expertise in regenerating institutions and, in short, fixing anything that does not flow in the business world,” explains CONN-OSHA Occupational Safety Training Specialist and roundtable project coordinator John Able. “His presentation will include discussion on his work monitoring the environment in the grassland ecosystem known as the Savannah. Individuals living there are an excellent example of how to monitor a specific environment with finely defined roles, clear communication, clear priorities and clear plans.”

Admission to the roundtable is free, but pre-registration is required. Please contact Able at john.able@ct.gov to register or for additional information.
