CT Department of Labor Communications Office
Commissioner Kurt Westby

Reminder: CT Learns and Works Symposium Is October 19 at Norwalk Community College

WETHERSFIELD, October 4, 2018 – CT Learns and Works, the breakfast series geared for educators, counselors, employment and training specialists, and business persons interested in career and workforce development issues, will close out the fall series on October 19 at Norwalk Community College.

The event will run from 8 to 11:45 a.m., and features panel discussions, ways to engage in STEM education, and information from Connecticut employers – including insight on jobs with bright outlooks and skills that companies need. Patrick Flaherty, Assistant Director with the Labor Department's Office of Research, will provide an overview of state and national labor market information.

The CT Learns and Works breakfast symposium series is sponsored by the Connecticut Departments of Labor and Education, Connecticut Career Network, CT State Colleges and Universities, CT Board of Regents and Eversource.

Admission to the Norwalk symposium is free, but preregistration is required. Please visit www.CTLearnsandWorks.com to register and for directions while questions can be sent to CT Learns and Works coordinator Stephen Dombrowski, stephen.dombrowski@ct.gov or (860) 263-6051.
