Labor Department, MCC Partner for March 29 Manchester Community College Regional Job Fair

WETHERSFIELD, February 21, 2019 – The Connecticut Department of Labor and Manchester Community College are again hosting the annual Manchester Community College Regional Job Fair. Taking place from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. March 29, this marks the 31st year of the event, which will be held at the college, located at 60 Bidwell Street, Manchester. The event is also sponsored by the MCC Foundation and the Journal Inquirer newspaper.

“The Connecticut Department of Labor and Manchester Community College have a long-standing and successful partnership in bringing qualified jobseekers and prospective employers together,” explains State Labor Commissioner Kurt Westby. “Visitors will have opportunities to meet one-on-one with more than 50 companies that are hoping to fill positions in management, manufacturing, technical, medical and a variety of other fields.

The fee for exhibitors is $350 and includes an eight-foot booth, six-foot draped table, booth signage, and a wide range of publicity through local press releases, radio and newspaper ads, community calendar listings and newsletter notifications. Thousands of jobseekers will also be reached through Facebook and Twitter postings, email, and the Connecticut Department of Labor’s website.

Early registration is encouraged. Employers participating in the regional job fair can register on the Labor Department’s website at www.ctjobfairs.com or by contacting Julie Greene at Manchester Community College at JGreene@Manchestercc.edu or (860) 512-3372.

Free, on-campus parking is plentiful, and admission for jobseekers is also free. For directions to the college, visit www.ctjobsfairs.com. As the event draws closer, a list of participating companies and available positions will also be posted on the site.
