

Updated Job Journeys Career Posters Now Available; Information Helps in Making Informed Career Choices

WETHERSFIELD, May 16, 2019 – Newly updated Job Journeys career posters published by the Connecticut Department of Labor highlight the many career and job opportunities today, and in the future.

“Connecticut offers excellent job and career possibilities in a wide range of industries, and in a variety of occupations,” said State Labor Commissioner Kurt Westby. “Some jobs require an advanced degree, others need specific training, while entry-level jobs are ideal for those just starting out. Our Job Journeys posters are designed to help show the many possibilities in order to help our residents make knowledgeable career decisions.”

The posters, developed for jobseekers, students, teachers, career counselors and workforce professionals, represent the 16 national “Career Clusters” and include information about associated pay, required education, and how a career might progress with additional education and experience. The full-color posters, located on the Labor Department’s Office of Research webpage, include occupations in the following career clusters:

- Agriculture, Food & Natural Resources
- Architecture & Construction
- Arts, A-V Technology & Communications
- Business, Management & Administration
- Education & Training
- Finance
- Government & Public Administration
- Health Science
- Hospitality & Tourism
- Human Services
- Information Technology
- Law; Public Safety and Security
- Manufacturing
- Marketing, Sales & Service
- Science, Technology Engineering & Mathematics
- Transportation and Distribution and Logistics
