Career Fairs in Cromwell and Danbury Offer Opportunities for Employers, Jobseekers

WETHERSFIELD, June 11, 2019 – Connecticut Department of Labor employees will be on-site to assist visitors at two career fairs being held in June. The Middlesex County Career Fair will be held 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. June 18 at Cromwell’s Red Lion Hotel, while the Greater Danbury Career Fair at the Danbury Fair Mall is 5 to 9 p.m. June 27. The Red Lion Hotel is located at 100 Berlin Road in Cromwell and the Danbury Fair Mall is located at 7 Backus Avenue, Danbury.

The Middlesex County Career Fair, which will feature more than 50 employers, is sponsored by the Connecticut Department of Labor, Middlesex Chamber of Commerce and Workforce Alliance. Participating companies include Albertus Magnus College, CT Transit, ECHN, Price Chopper, Our Piece of the Pie and the U.S. Postal Service. The Greater Danbury Career Fair is sponsored by the Connecticut Department of Labor, the Northwest Regional Workforce Board, Greater Danbury Chamber, Career Path Mobile and Danbury Fair Mall. Admission to both career fairs is free for jobseekers. Attendees are encouraged to bring plenty of résumés, dress for success, and be ready to talk with employers.

Employers interested in attending either event can register online at www.ctjobfairs.com.
