

Labor Department Offers Fall Job and Career Fair Series in Danbury, Cromwell

WETHERSFIELD, Aug. 9, 2011 – The Connecticut Department of Labor’s popular career fair series returns in September with an event scheduled for September 12 at the Ethan Allen Hotel in Danbury. Co-sponsored by Cumulus Media and the City of Danbury, the event will run from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

A second career fair will be held 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. on October 28 at the Crowne Plaza in Cromwell. Co-sponsors of the Middlesex County Career Fair include the Middlesex Chamber of Commerce and the Workforce Alliance.

“We are now in our 15th year of matching employers with quality individuals, helping companies fill positions ranging from entry level to technical, financial, sales and management,” noted Labor Commissioner Glenn Marshall. “Since 1996 the Department of Labor has been delivering proven results and has earned an excellent reputation as the sponsor of this state’s premier recruiting events.”

According to Commissioner Marshall, “Our agency’s career fairs reach more jobseekers than any other employment-related event in the state. We attribute this to the fact that the Labor Department often partners with community colleges, chambers of commerce and workforce development associations so that we can better determine the local employment needs of the business community.”

Employer registration fee to exhibit at the Danbury Career Fair is $395 and $250 for the Middlesex County Career Fair with an additional $25 is assessed if an electrical outlet is required. Registration includes a skirted table, company sign, listing in the program guide, extensive advertising, boxed lunch, and assistance with parking and booth set-up. Both locations offer free parking and easy access to the exhibition areas.

Companies interested in registering for either of the fall Career Fairs can do so by visiting the Connecticut Department of Labor’s Web site at www.ctjobfairs.com.
