

Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA) UI/TRA Income Projection and Statement of Support

TAA-6

Name _____

CTHires _____

Petition # _____

Unemployment Insurance (UI)	Current UI benefit year ends: _____ Subsequent benefit year eligibility, if anticipated, is based on employment at _____ <ul style="list-style-type: none"> If the worker's petition # is between 70000 & 90000+: If eligibility for another UI benefit year is based on part-time or short-term employment that follows the worker's most recent total separation from adversely affected employment AND the UI rate on the subsequent claim is lower than the weekly TRA amount, the worker may opt to receive TRA over UI. This option would be given after the new claim is established.
Additional Trade Readjustment Allowances (TRA)	If the worker's petition number is less than 70000, was a bona fide application for training (JS-52) signed by the worker and a TAA counselor on or before the "210" date? Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/> If no, additional TRA may not be paid.
Remedial/prerequisite training	Number of weeks of remedial education included in worker's TAA retraining plan, if any: _____ If the worker's petition number is between 70000 and 79999, number of weeks of prerequisite education needed to participate in occupational skills training, if any. _____

UI/TRA	UI Current Claim	UI Subsequent Claim	Basic TRA 26 weeks	Additional TRA		Remedial TRA up to 26 weeks petition numbers less than 80000 or Completion TRA up to 13 weeks in a 20 week period petition numbers greater than 80000
				<input type="checkbox"/>	up to 65 weeks – petition number greater than 80000
				<input type="checkbox"/>	up to 52 weeks - petition # between 50000 and 70000
				<input type="checkbox"/>	up to 78 weeks - petition # between 70000 and 79999
Weekly benefit rate	$ _____	$ _____		$ _____
Week ending date of first eligible week
Week ending date of last eligible week
Number of weeks ineligible for TRA due to a break in training longer than 30 days
Does not qualify (X)	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Final week of UI/TRA income support				Training ends

If UI/TRA income support is not available during the entire training program, worker must complete the section below.

Worker's Certification of Income Support

I understand that my unemployment compensation and TRA benefits are projected to end prior to the end of my training and/or I am ineligible to receive TRA during breaks in training that are longer than 30 days. INITIAL HERE:

I have the following financial resources to pay living expenses in order to complete training. Financial aid may be included.

Continue on reverse side if necessary. If relying on another individual for financial support, the person offering to support you must provide a signed statement acknowledging the duration of time he or she will provide you with financial support.

I understand this information is requested to assist the state workforce agency determine whether I am qualified to undertake and complete training, pursuant to federal Trade Act regulations requiring an evaluation of my personal qualifications that includes financial resources. I understand that I may be found liable for an overpayment of Trade Act benefits, including training costs, in the event I fail to begin, participate in or complete training without justifiable cause.

The UI/TRA benefits listed above are projections only and subject to change based on individual circumstances or other factors.*

Date reviewed with client: _____