Middlesex County Career Fair Set for June 17 at Cromwell's Crowne Plaza Hotel

WETHERSFIELD, June 6, 2014 – The Connecticut Department of Labor is partnering with the Middlesex Chamber of Commerce and Workforce Alliance to hold its annual Middlesex County Career Fair on Tuesday, June 17. Held at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Cromwell, the event runs from 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Representatives from more than 40 companies are expected to take part and will be available to speak one-on-one with visitors about possible openings with their companies – everything from entry-level positions to management jobs.

“The Middlesex County Summer Career Fair has become a great way to connect employers with job-ready individuals,” said State Labor Commissioner Sharon M. Palmer. “Companies will find an excellent forum in which to recruit employees for the skilled workforce they need, and jobseekers have a great place to meet one-on-one and network with potential employers.”

Certified Professional Résumé Writers from the Department of Labor will be on hand throughout the day to critique résumés to help showcase jobseeker’s skills and accomplishments. DOL employees will also conduct LinkedIn profile critiques, including wording recommendations to sharpen content, formatting suggestions to improve layout, help in creating headlines, and discuss photo options for LinkedIn pages.

Employer registration fee is $300 (additional $25 if an electrical outlet is needed) which includes a boxed lunch, skirted table, company sign, program guide listing, and extensive radio, newspaper and Internet advertising.
