

Scott D. Jackson

Commissioner

Department of Labor
200 Folly Brook Boulevard
Wethersfield, CT 06109

THURSDAY: COMMISSIONER JACKSON ANNOUNCES REGISTERED APPRENTICESHIP PROGRAM FOR NEW NURSE HIRES AT YALE NEW HAVEN HOSPITAL

(WETHERSFIELD, CT) – On Thursday, Labor Commissioner Scott D. Jackson will be joined by representatives from Yale New Haven Hospital (YNHH) and the US Department of Labor Office of Apprenticeship, to announce a Nurse Residency Apprenticeship Program that has been approved by the CT Department of Labor. The USDOL American Apprenticeship Initiative grant is assisting to fund the program in support of YNHH’s efforts to retain nurses and ensure a highly-skilled workforce.

WHO: Commissioner Jackson, Charles McNeil of USDOL, and Yale New Haven Hospital officials and nurses

WHEN: Thursday, November 16, 2017; 1:30 p.m. (November 13-17 is National Apprenticeship Week)

WHERE: CT Department of Labor, 200 Folly Brook Blvd., Wethersfield CT

Upon arrival, please park in designated visitor spaces and check in at the security desk.

###

Contact:

Nancy Steffens, Communications Director
Connecticut Department of Labor
Nancy.Steffens@ct.gov
860.236.6535 (o) | 860.614.9957 (m)
Facebook: /ConnecticutDepartmentOfLabor | Twitter: www.twitter.com/CTDOL