Updated Recordkeeping and Reporting Requirements Topic at Feb. 21 CONN-OSHA Employer Roundtable

WETHERSFIELD, February 15, 2017 – Updated federal recordkeeping requirements for workplace injuries and illnesses, and accurate electronic submission of these records, will be discussed at the February 21 Breakfast Roundtable Discussion Group meeting sponsored by the Connecticut Department of Labor’s Division of Occupational Safety and Health (CONN-OSHA).

The Roundtable will be held 8:15 to 9:45 a.m. at the Labor Department’s Central Office, 200 Folly Brook Boulevard, Wethersfield. CONN-OSHA employees Grayson Gregory and Catherine Zinsser will review and explain the Occupational Safety and Health Administration’s revised guidelines and answer questions.

“OSHA’s revised requirements now require that certain information pertaining to workplace injuries and illnesses be submitted electronically for posting to the OSHA website,” explains John Able, CONN-OSHA Occupational Safety Training Specialist and breakfast roundtable project coordinator. He noted that many employers will be required to electronically submit Form 300A (Summary of Injuries and Illnesses) by July 1, 2017, and several other related reports by July 1, 2018.

Admission to the breakfast is free but pre-registration is required. Please contact Able at john.able@ct.gov to register or for additional information.
