WETHERSFIELD, April 24, 2017 – More than 80 employers and service organizations are taking part in the Heroes 4 Hire Job and Career Fair – the largest of its kind in New England – when it returns to the Pratt and Whitney Stadium Ballroom at Rentschler Field in East Hartford on Tuesday, April 25.

Sponsored by the Connecticut Department of Labor, Connecticut Department of Veterans Affairs, Travelers, CBS Radio, and local chambers of commerce, the annual event will be held 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

“Representatives from the various companies and service organizations, and employees from the Connecticut departments of Labor and Veterans Affairs will be available throughout the day to speak with veterans and their families,” said Terry Brennan, director of the Connecticut Department of Labor’s Office of Veterans’ Workforce Development. “Businesses will be looking for veterans to fill positions that range from entry-level to technical, service, and management jobs. We urge everyone to arrive early, bring along plenty of résumés, and be prepared to talk with employers on the spot.”

Participating companies include Ensign Bickford Aerospace & Defense, General Dynamics Electric Boat, The Hartford, Kimberly-Clark Corporation, Mohegan Sun, RMS Sikorsky Aircraft, Stanley Black and Decker, Travelers, and Yarde Metals.
