WETHERSFIELD, June 16, 2017 – Representatives from Albertus Magnus College, ConnectiCare, DATTCO, General Dynamics, Pratt & Whitney, Stanley Black & Decker and Troy Industrial Solutions are among the more than 45 employers that will be on hand and ready to meet with prospective employees during the Middlesex County Job and Career Fair taking place Tuesday, June 20, at the Radisson Hotel Cromwell.

Running from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m., the event is co-sponsored by the Connecticut Department of Labor, the Middlesex Chamber of Commerce and the Workforce Alliance. There is no charge for admission.

“We’re suggesting that everyone arrive early and bring plenty of résumés for one-on-one meetings with personnel from the companies that are taking part,” said State Labor Commissioner Scott D. Jackson. “With over 45 companies seeking new employees, this is a great way to conduct an effective job search.”

A complete list of employers and directions to the Radisson Hotel Crowell, which is located at 100 Berlin Road, Cromwell, can be found by visiting the Connecticut Department of Labor’s job fair website at www.ctjobfairs.com.
