30th Annual Manchester Community College Regional Job Fair is April 6

WETHERSFIELD, March 19, 2018 – The Manchester Community College Regional Job Fair, celebrates a milestone on April 6 – its 30th anniversary of matching job seekers with prospective employees.

The job fair runs from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. and is co-sponsored by Manchester Community College, the Connecticut Department of Labor, the MCC Foundation, and the Journal Inquirer.

“The Connecticut Department of Labor and Manchester Community College have a longstanding partnership and a history of bringing together job seekers and prospective employers,” explains State Labor Commissioner Scott Jackson. “While at the Manchester Community College Regional Career Fair, visitors will have the opportunity to meet one-on-one with representatives from 50 companies that are offering positions in management, manufacturing, medical, technical and a variety of other fields.”

Admission for jobseekers is free. Employers wishing to participate in the career fair can register, either by visiting the Labor Department’s website at www.ctjobfairs.com, or contact Julie Greene at Manchester Community College at JGreene@Manchestercc.edu or (860) 512-3372.

A list of participating companies and directions to Manchester Community College are available at www.ctjobfairs.com
