

Middlesex Career Fair is Oct. 28 at Cromwell's Crowne Plaza Hotel

WETHERSFIELD, Oct. 4, 2011 – More than 40 employers are expected to take part in the Middlesex Country Career Fair being held 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Oct. 28 at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Cromwell.

The event, which will be held in the hotel's ballroom, is co-sponsored by the Connecticut Department of Labor, the Middlesex Chamber of Commerce and the Workforce Alliance. Company representatives will be available to talk with attendees about possible openings with their companies – ranging from entry level positions to management jobs.

In addition, résumé writers from the Labor Department will be available throughout the day to review and critique résumés.

“The Middlesex County Career Fair provides jobseekers with a great place to meet one-on-one with potential employers, talk with career search experts, and have their résumés critiqued at no charge,” noted Labor Commissioner Glenn Marshall. “Employers have always found this event to be an excellent forum for employers looking to fill job openings with qualified individuals.”

Companies interested in participating in the Middlesex County Career Fair are asked contact Johanna Bond, Middlesex Chamber of Commerce, at (860) 347-6942. Jobseekers can visit the Labor Department's job fair web site at www.ctjobfairs.com for directions to the Crowne Plaza and a complete listing of employers.
