

Questions, Comments and Coffee at May 17 CONN-OSHA “Open Forum”

Session will take place in Labor Department’s Wethersfield Central Office

WETHERSFIELD, May 13, 2011 – Every safety and health-related topic is a potential conversation starter during a May 17 Breakfast Roundtable Discussion Group meeting being sponsored by the Connecticut Department of Labor’s Division of Occupational Safety and Health (CONN-OSHA).

Organizers of the event have scheduled an open forum for this month’s program and are inviting everyone to bring along all their safety and health-related questions to the session, which will be held from 8:15 to 9:45 a.m. in Conference Rooms A, B and C of the agency’s Wethersfield Central Office.

“Every safety and health-related issue is a welcome topic and open to discussion this month,” explains John Able CONN-OSHA, Occupational Safety Training Specialist, who coordinates the breakfast series and will facilitate. “We’ll do our best to answer everything and address each concern. So bring along your questions, challenges, successes and coffee cup and plan on joining us join us on May. 17. This month’s format may be different from our usual, more structured format, but I guarantee you that everyone will find it informative and enjoy the give and take.”

Admission to the roundtable is free, but pre-registration is required. To register for the breakfast roundtable or for additional information, please contact Able at able.john@dol.gov.
