

Labor Department's Danbury Career Fair Sept. 12 at Ethan Allen Hotel

WETHERSFIELD, Sept. 6 – Jobseekers and employers will want to take part in the Connecticut Department of Labor's first fall career fair taking place Sept. 12 at the Ethan Allen Hotel in Danbury.

Running from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., the event, which will be held in the hotel's ballroom, is co-sponsored by Cumulus Media, the City of Danbury and the Northwest Regional Workforce Investment Board.

"Jobseekers should plan to bring along plenty of résumés and visit with participating companies to talk about what they can bring to a potential employer," explains State Labor Commissioner Glenn Marshall. "Statistics show that our agency's career fairs reach more jobseekers than any other employment event in the state. Jobseekers will have the opportunity to meet with representatives from more than 40 employers seeking a variety of candidates, including those in the professional, technical/high tech, administrative or production fields with experience ranging from entry-level to management."

Professional résumé writers from the Connecticut Department of Labor will also be on hand throughout the day to help visitors who would like to have their résumés reviewed and critiqued at no cost.

A list of employers, and directions to the Ethan Allen Inn, which is located at 21 Lake Avenue Extension, can be found by visiting the Connecticut Department of Labor's job fair web site at ww.ctjobfairs.com.
