

Prudential Financial Employees Eligible To Apply For Trade Act Benefits

WETHERSFIELD – The Connecticut Department of Labor has certified former employees of Prudential Financial as eligible to apply for federal Trade Adjustment Assistance. The Hartford facility employees, who worked in the production of financial services, were certified on August 18, 2021.

All affected employees will receive an eligibility notice by mail that explains how to apply for benefits. Employees eligible to apply for federal benefits are those who are or will be totally or partially separated from employment due to lack of work on or after June 8, 2020, and on or before August 18, 2023.

Available assistance may include training, income support in the form of Trade Readjustment Allowances, and job search and relocation allowances for qualified workers who seek or obtain employment outside their normal commuting areas.

Individuals 50 years of age and older can return to lower-paying work may be eligible to receive Reemployment Trade Adjustment Assistance wage subsidies.

Individuals having questions about the certification, or the Trade Act can go the Department of Labor's Trade Act web page.

###