Dear Labor Commissioner:

Pursuant to the WARN Act, 29 USC § 2101 et. seq., and its implementing regulations, 20 CFR Part 639, this letter serves to provide advance notice of an intended plant closing. Specifically, in December of 2024, Hologic, Inc.'s operations at 37 Apple Ridge, Danbury, CT, 06180, will permanently cease. As a result of this closure, Hologic anticipates permanently laying off 71 permanent full-time employees with an anticipated last day of employment of December 20, 2024. After December 20, 2024, a small number of permanent, full-time employees at this site will remain employed to conduct final post-closure activities. Three of these employees will be laid off on January 31, 2025, and 12 of these employees will be laid off on or around February 14 through 21, 2025.

For additional information, including but not limited to specific job titles affected or as otherwise required under 20 CFR 639.7(e), please contact Dawn Hunt-Vergilis, Human Resources Manager, at (203) 731-8316 or at the address 37 Apple Ridge, Danbury, CT, 06180.

Sincerely,
